Previewing Template Changes

Whenever you add, edit or delete restrictions on a given template prior to saving and/or publishing the template, these changes will be logged in the Preview Restriction Changes utility, which you can access by clicking [Preview Changes].

The Preview Restriction Changes window will compare the status of restrictions of the previous version of the template with the additions, editions or deletions you have implemented this time around. This enables you to keep track of any changes you have made on a given template.
